Arcane Architecture is a perfect way to add wonderful looking bits to your scenery. The columns and doorways look just as good on temples in Warhammer or gothic buildings in Warhammer 40,000.

What Undead army is complete without a few tombstones and headstones on bases or on a neat diaroma.

The chests and tables are great for Warhammer Quest fans looking for a way to add a new dimension to their dungeon adventures!

The horse and carts add that cool imagery to any army. Load them up with the chests and other bits to create baggage trains. The possibilities are endless!

It's the Brew House Bash!

Brew House Bash was the cool free game found in White Dwarf #222. Set in a bar in Mektown, you take the role of an Ork in a rock 'em sock 'em rumble amidst tossed chairs and crashing tables. The last Ork left standing is the winner! The rules are quick and simple to learn, which leaves you time to make the board and characters as cool as they can be!

If you don't own Gorkamorka then you are going to need a sprue to make the boys that are in the brawl! (sprue shown at 50% of actual size)

99380403001 $8.00

The game board and rules can all be found in White Dwarf #222*. If you were at Games Day then you saw first hand all the rowdiness that went along with playing the* Brew House Bash*!!!*

Big tables are crucial to the game. Anything smaller just won't hurt a thick-skulled Ork!

Large Tables (2) +4 Benches $7.99

As seen on the previous page in Troll #7!

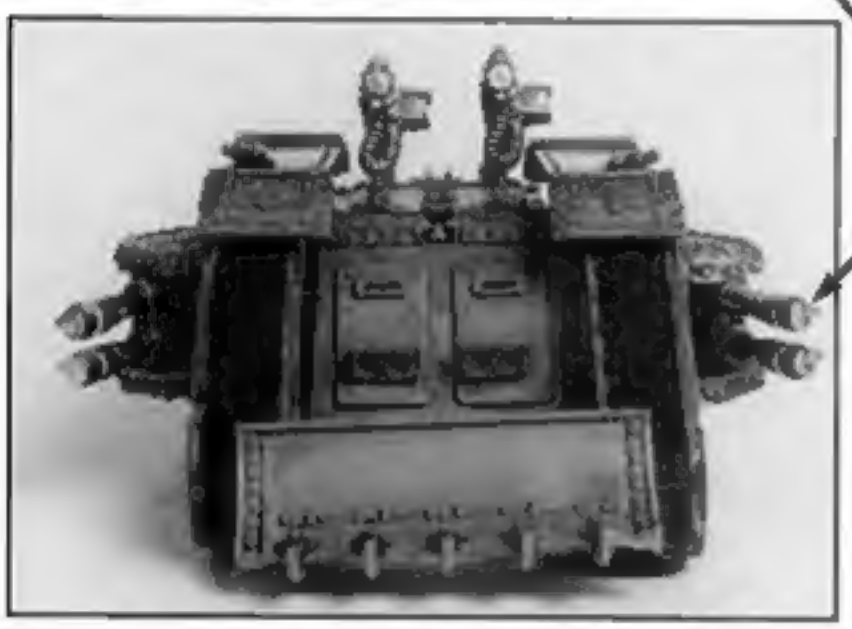
GRAB A PINT OF SQUIG-JUICE AND GET RUMBLING! 1-800-394-GAME

Conversion of da Month!

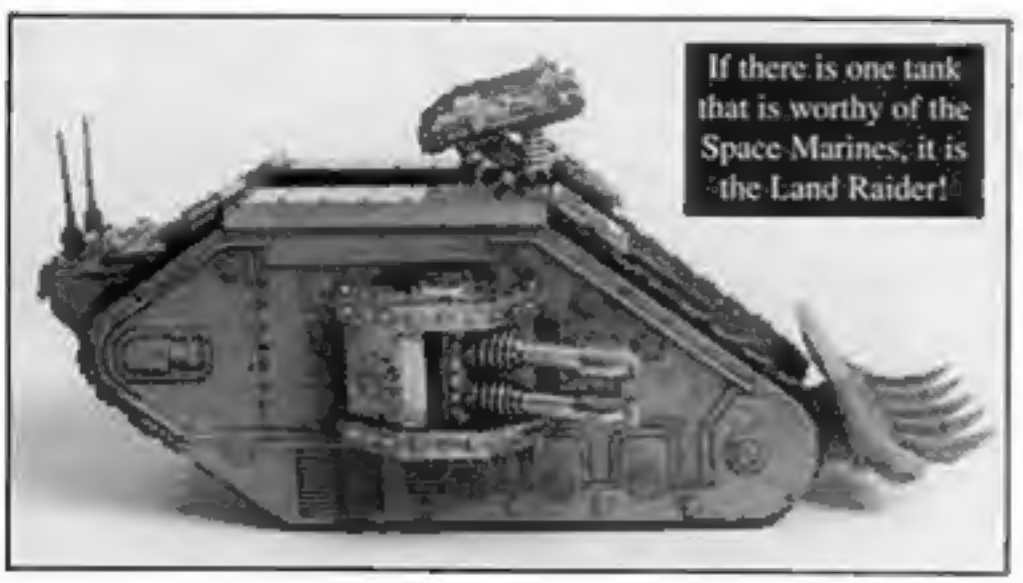
This month we bring you a conversion that Imperial players will simply love, a Land Raider*. One of the most powerful tanks in the game, the Landraider has been out of production for a long time. And though we've heard that the sculptors are working on a new one, it'll still be some time before it is complete. In the meantime, tank commanders should be more than happy to introduce this Land Raider conversion done by Mail Order troll Matt "Krazy Hat Man" Maggitti to the battlefield.*

Pick up this cool conversion and blow away your friends for $39.99



Four Lascannons - Ouch!

Two Heavy Bolters and roomy enough for ten Space Marines!



If there is one tank that is worthy of the Space Marines, it is the Land Raider!

Name: Lance Kandler

Position: Mail Order Telesales Supervisor

Which GW character are you most like and why? Jules le Jongleur - distracting and fun "cutting wit" (cutting something - Ed).

What armies do you play? Undead, Chaos Bretonnians, Dark Angels, Tyranids (40K & Epic).

Describe yourself in one paragraph: Bad jokes. A fair painter but a great general. Bad jokes. Graduate of Penn State and married despite the bad jokes. Been with Games Workshop for almost four years, started in Trade sales and recently moved to Mail Order where they love bad jokes.

Give use your best painting tip: Don't use your tongue. A light drybrush of red ink on large creature's eyes make a perfect "bloodshot" look.

What's the best tactics advice can offer: A wraith in every undead unit. Always outnumber your opponent.

What's your best advice on life: Treat everyone as a friend until they prove otherwise.

GET EVERYTHING YOU NEED FOR BOMBERZ OVER DA SULPHUR RIVER!!!

TORA! TORA! TORA!

DAKKA...DAKKA...DAKKA.... Bommerz over da Sulphur River pits Ork Fighta-Bommerz against Imperial ground forces in a battle to destroy a vital bridge. Spice up your game by using these great models instead of Flak or Laser defense counters.

Once you've mastered the Orks and the Imperium, it's time to move onto the other races in the 41st Millennium (what, you think Orks and the Imperium are the only people who use or want to blow up bridges?). We've included rules for using these models so give them a try and tell us what you think!
